"Majestic monarch of the sky
The sign of hope and triumph high."
We pause to salute you!

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

CLASS OF 1945

Beverly High School

Prologue

Pause now, you who would enter here,
You of the laughter so young and so clear.
I hold your lives of the last three years:
The lessons, the fun, the friends you hold dear.

And tho' you consider me merely a book,
At my shining pages shall you often look
In future years, to find again
Friendships dearer to be renewed;
Mischief in lighter hours brewed;
And through it all the soft refrain:
"These years shall not be again."

So turning my pages, mark well each face.
Each can climb to some loftier place.
Who knows what statesman, soldier, seer,
May rise from the goodly gath'ring here?
Heed, please, my message and treasure me well:
In me is the key to your memory's spell.

Senior Memoirs

Faculty

Mr. Stewart B. Atkinson

For your friendliness, cooperation, and earnestness, the Class of 1945 salute you. We thank you for your helpfulness in solving our problems and in making our high school days a happy remembrance.

Mr. Atkinson's Message to the Seniors

Three years ago you and I came to Beverly High together. We were both a bit strange, at first, wondering what sort of people the teachers were, and how we all would get along with the upper classmen.

Now, three years later, any doubts we may have had have been completely dissolved. We have found Beverly High teachers a grand group of friendly, earnest men and women who have dedicated all of their efforts to the true education of the youth of Beverly. We know that the boys and girls of Beverly High are an attractive, fun-loving, loyal group of young people. Our years together in Beverly High have been fun, and very much worth while, haven't they?

Now as you leave school to take your place in the world you have a hard job ahead of you. Our country is still at war; our boys are still leaving for the service, and our girls are taking up vital jobs on the home front. Circumstances forbid the normal, happy existence I would wish for you.

You, however, are not very much disturbed. Your calm confidence, under the stresses of war, and indeed that of all American youth, is a source of never-ending admiration on the part of your elders. We can depend upon you to carry out well whatever duties you are called upon to perform. Our trust is in you, for now, and for those future years when you will assume positions of leadership in the affairs of our community and of our country.

In the meantime, good luck! Call upon us whenever we can be of assistance to you.

Miss Katherine Blanchard

The bond between the students and our Class Adviser is one that has steadily strengthened with our three years of working together for a common goal, that is, the welfare and interest of the Class of 1945.

The anticipation with which, as Sophomores, we trooped into the hall to meet our Adviser and await her suggestions for our new organization has deepened into a very real regard and appreciation. If, through our regular studies, we have been learning some of the more serious purposes of community and national life, so through our class activities we have learned the worth and the fun of cooperating as a social unit.

Miss Blanchard, you have taught us another valuable lesson—not to be deterred from our objective by any personal hardship. Your willing efforts in our behalf, your earnestness and enthusiasm in furthering our desires as a class, and your sympathy and understanding have endeared you to us all.

Now we have come to the high time in the life of our class and the culmination of your labors for us—Commencement. For us it is a joy long awaited, but it is also regret, for it means separation. For you it is the fulfillment of a big responsibility so faithfully carried through that it is not as our Adviser, but rather as our “Class Mother,” that we, the Class of 1945, will carry your memory with us to the far corners of the earth.

Miss Addie Hobbs

For forty-three years Miss Hobbs has given her understanding and her strength willingly, faithfully, and with keen enjoyment, to her work with the young people whom she has taught in the Beverly schools. The Class of 1945 thank her for all that she has done, and wish her much happiness as she enters a life of new interests with more leisure to enjoy fully those beauties of nature which she has taught so many of us to appreciate.

Mr. Edgar A. Winters

To Mr. Edgar A. Winters, Director of Beverly Trade Schools, we dedicate this page. His many years of service to the youth of Beverly High School and Beverly Trade Schools will long be remembered.

Mr. Winters retires this year. In departing he takes with him the heartfelt gratitude and friendship of those who have known him and benefited by the acquaintance.

To Mr. Winters we wish many years of happiness which he well deserves.

In Memoriam

Miss E. Maude Winship

We, the Class of 1945, the last class to be inspired by the knowledge and friendliness of Miss E. Maude Winship, dedicate this page to her memory. Forced by illness to leave school after thirty-one years of teaching in Beverly, she never gave up the hope of returning to "her boys and girls." We shall not forget her earnest desire to help. Held in high esteem by faculty and pupils alike, her memory will forever linger in the corridors of Beverly High School.

Seniors

Senior Class History

On September 9, 1942, the graduating class of '45 first entered Beverly High School, a timid but hopeful young group of Sophomores. Though we were shy and humble at first, we gradually accustomed ourselves to our strange surroundings until we were finally recognized as a helpful and necessary part of the school. We soon elected our home room officers, and members of the House of Delegates, and we joined different clubs. The war came close to us, for new subjects were added, courses were changed, and the nation-wide Victory Corps was introduced into B.H.S.

We entered class competition with the superior Seniors and Juniors on Drama Night when we presented a riotous comedy entitled "Elmer and the Lovebug." Although we did not win the coveted banner, we gave the upper classmen some stiff competition and the audience a great many laughs. William Floyd won the pin for the best acting and was assisted by Barbara Haskell, Jane Brothie, Estamarie Shea, Phyllis Webber, Gwendolyn Leonard, Lucile Gove, Sally McKay, Marylou Buckley, Edward Flook, Warren Griffiths, and Richard Burr. The football season was soon under way and to the second team we contributed Robert Pelonzi, Bill Kelly, Ralph Lewis, Dave Trefry, and John Hirschorn. Other members of our class who provided heavy practice opposition were Jack Carr, Cliff Roby, Michael Pisani, Tom Quinn, and Dennis Shea.

When the football season was over, basketball came in. Our lone representative on the first team was Cliff Roby, while Eugene LaMontagne and Dennis Shea showed great promise and playing ability on the second team.

The boys were not the only ones who went in for sports. Our girls who showed speed and playing ability in basketball were Peggy Waldie, Louise Fielding, Lorraine Andersen, Eleanor Ricci, Annette St. Pierre, and Frances Bonjorno. A capable group of girls represented the sophomores on the field hockey team. They were Peggy Waldie, Sally Ann Cohn, Naomi Berman, Joan Lindberg, Annette St. Pierre, Louise Fielding, Frances Bonjorno, and Blanche Dodge.

During the third quarter we elected as our Junior class officers: Armand Fortunato, president; Jack Carr, vice president; Erma McLean, secretary, and Sally McKay, treasurer.

To serve us in the Student Council we elected Sally McKay, Helen Grant, Marylou Buckley, Erma McLean, Robert Seanzani, and Armand Fortunato.

Thus, our Sophomore year fast drew to a close.

In the fall of '43, as full-fledged Juniors, we well knew the exasperating trials the incoming students had to undergo, coping with lockers that wouldn't work, finding rooms that didn't seem to be there, and trying to keep out of the way of the high and cocky Seniors. We settled into our routine of new classes, joining new clubs and our particular branches of the Victory Corps.

This year we entered the Drama Night competition with a stirring play entitled "The Bugle Blows." Again we did not win the banner, but our play was well received and enjoyed by all. Marylou Buckley won the pin for the best acting and was supported by Barbara Haskell, Phyllis Webber, Warren Griffiths, Marland Slaven, and Elaine Stuart.

As before, the Class of '45 excelled in sports. Our football representatives were Jack Dooling, Bob Pelonzi, Ralph Lewis, John Hilton, Jack Carr, and Bill Kelly; the outstanding players on the basketball team were Jack Dooling, Frank Marchilli, and Jack Carr; and to the track team we contributed Eugene LaMontagne.

Lorraine Andersen, Louise Fielding, Annette St. Pierre, Joan Harrington, and Shirley Trask were the girls who represented the Class of '45 in basketball. To the field hockey team we gave Annette St. Pierre, Lorraine Andersen, and Sally Ann Cohn.

Josephine Acciavatti "Josie"

Audubon Club 11, 12; Victory Corps General Membership 11, 12. Josie intends to work at the Hytron, but she has hopes of becoming a housewife. We scarcely know when Jo is there, For she is so quiet; it's really quite rare!

Archer Ackerman "Skip"

Band 10, 11, 12. Skip intends to join the service when he leaves school, but his ambition is to go to college. He was on the basketball team in his Senior year. His pet saying is "Hey, you!" Collecting junk is his hobby. Archy is tall, silent and coy. We expect big things from that boy.

Lorraine Andersen "Andy"

In Memoriam

Cidney Rowell

Many are the graduates of Beverly High School who are now in the service of our country and among them, already, are several of the Class of 1945. With deep feeling we have watched the Final Honor Roll in the school lobby grow longer as one after another has made the supreme sacrifice, but it was with heavy hearts indeed, that we saw on this list last fall the name of Cidney Rowell.

Cidney entered high school with our class in September, 1942. Full of fun, his cheery and friendly disposition made him popular with students and teachers alike. He was called to duty with the armed forces on November 3, 1943, while still a Junior, and served with the Infantry. He was killed in action in France on July 29, 1944.

Philip Kimball

The second member of our class to make the supreme sacrifice is Philip Kimball. Early in his Junior year he left school, being inducted into the Navy on October 10, 1943. He was on an aircraft carrier in the Pacific when he was killed.

National Honor Society

David Kellom, Sally Ann Cohn, Marylou Buckley, Sally McKay, Robert Crosby
Richard Murney

Our school became a member of the National Honor Society in 1927 and our branch of the organization is the Gamma Chapter. Membership is gained through scholarship, service, leadership and character, the first step necessary for consideration being a high scholastic attainment. At the present time we have four hundred members.

The members elected during their Junior year serve to induct the new Junior and Senior members into the Society at the Senior Assembly in the spring. The inductors, appropriately costumed for the occasion, explain the meaning of membership in the society and administer the oath to the new members. Because of the dignity and impressiveness of this service, the Senior Assembly is the most outstanding of the year.

Senior Memoirs

Near the end of the year baseball was reinstated as a sport in B. H. S. The Junior boys who made up the first team were Frank Marchilli, Jack Dooling, and Dominic Petrosino.

In the spring the Student Council sponsored a prom which was well attended. It was the first prom the school had held for many years and those present will long remember the good time they had.

Toward the last of the year we elected Frances Bonjorno and Lucile Gove to serve in the Student Council along with the six other members from our class.

We also elected our class officers for the Senior year: Jack Carr, president; Frances Bonjorno, vice president; Erma McLean, secretary; and Sally McKay, treasurer.

We had been thrilled by the Senior Assembly the year before, but this year it meant even more to us for six of our own number were inducted into the National Honor Society. They were Marylou Buckley, Sally Ann Cohn, Robert Crosby, David Kellom, Sally McKay, and Richard Murney.

When we returned to B. H. S. in the fall of '44 as Seniors, many of us assumed a more serious attitude and settled down to work and to strive for better marks. Yet we still had time for outside fun. Our Senior Class ran a social in the fall which was a great success. We shall always remember it as one of the most enjoyable activities of our Senior year. The social was in charge of the Social Committee: Lorraine Andersen, Alice Grady, Mae Joslin, Nancy Sweet, Priscilla Wildes, Norma Wintther, John Barry, John Dooling, William Floyd, Richard Patch, and Thomas Quinn, with Donald Richardson, chairman.

Our class entered the Drama Night competition this year with a hilarious comedy entitled "Antic Spring." Those in the cast were Rita Bossie, Elaine Stuart, Gwendolyn Leonard, Richard Patch, Warren Griffiths, and Earle Soper. Warren Griffiths was awarded the prize for the best acting. Though in all our three years' competition our class never won the banner, it always provided the audience with good, wholesome entertainment.

The football team this year had a very good record. The Senior boys who played their last game for B. H. S. on turkey day were Bob Pelonzi, captain; John Pietrini, Domenic Petrosino, John Waldie, Jack Dooling, Ralph Lewis, Frank Marchilli, Jack Carr, John Hilton, Vin Menesale, Bob Hoar, and "Ted" Tedford.

The basketball team, too, had a fairly successful season. The Seniors who made the team were Jack Dooling, Frank Marchilli, Kent Rudkin, Joe Barry, and Jack Carr.

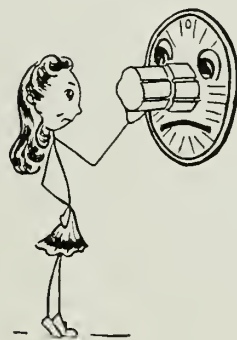

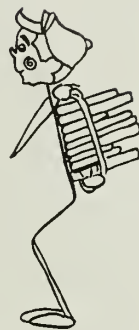

Under the leadership of Louise Fielding, the girls' basketball team emerged triumphant at the end of the season with a majority of wins. The Senior girls who comprised the team were Eleanor Ricci, Annette St. Pierre, Lorraine Andersen, Shirley Trask, Shirley Reinhold, Phyllis Moore, and Joan Harrington.

One of the Senior committees that must make a great many important decisions is the executive committee. Marylou Buckley, Armand Fortunato, June Johnson, Ralph Lewis, Joan Lindberg, Yolanda Rossi, and Francis Tosi made up this committee.

As we leave high school this June, we are mindful of the many who have already departed from the student body to join the ranks of fighting men, helping make our way of life free. Our class is very proud of all the B. H. S. boys who have answered the call of their country. We wish them a safe return, and may God bless them always.

Undergraduates

Junior History

The graduating class of 1946 started their Junior year on September 6, 1944. In contrast to our previous year, we went about in a more assured manner and in a short while we became established in our already familiar surroundings. The first activity of the year was the selection of clubs which is always met with enthusiasm.

Then football came into the limelight. Our representatives for the first team were Joe MacDougall, Robert Robinson, and "Brother" Roberts. Harry Minott, Jack Murphy, James Comisky, Albert Romani, John McClary, William Pinciario, Donald Lynch, Gordon Estes, "Barney" Atherton, "Red" Woods, and Paul Zampall did their share. It was a fairly successful year and the Robinson-to-MacDougall passing combination brought much credit to the Junior class.

With December came Drama Night. Our participants were Warren Allen, Jean Birmingham, Dorothy Dewar, Sybil Mitchell, Edward Neve, Horace Smith, and June Woodbury.

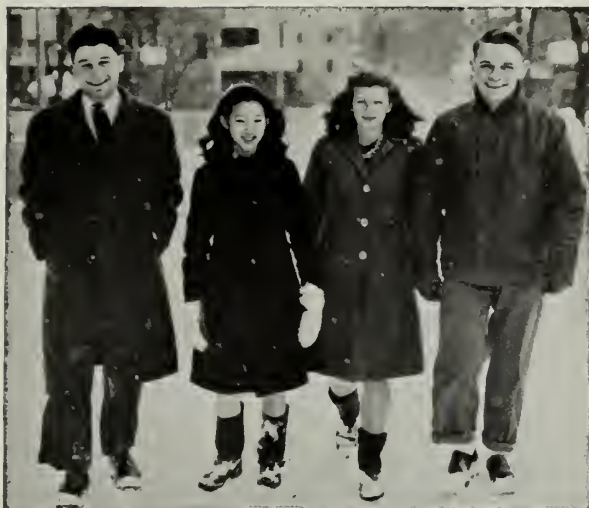

During this time our spare moments have been occupied with various Victory Corps activities.

In basketball more than any other sport the Junior boys have excelled. Those who have taken active part are Robert LaPointe, who has won the distinction of being high scorer, Curtis Foster, Leo Buckley, Jack Healy, Robert Robinson, Joe MacDougall, Harry Minott, Jack Murphy, and Raymond Kelleher.

The girls have also had a successful year in basketball. Those Juniors taking part were Corrine Estes, and Ramona Huard, who were on the first team, Laura DiFazio, Marjorie Miller, and Irene Dodge, who were first team subs; Eleanor Hathaway, Louise Murphy, Priscilla Smith, and Peggy Waldie, who were ever active on the second team.

The first social to be given by the Juniors was on Valentine's Day, which proved to be a very successful affair.

Thus passes a second wonderful year at B.H.S., leaving us all assured that next year, our final year, will be the most wonderful and memorable of all.

Sophomore History

Eight o'clock, September 16, 1944, found 325 Sophomores entering the doors of Beverly High School. With the assistance of helpful Seniors and Juniors, we finally located our home rooms on the second floor. During the first period and those following we met our old friends and became acquainted with our new teachers. Thus began our Sophomore year.

With Miss John as our class adviser, we spent the first quarter organizing our class. Home Room officers and members of the House of Delegates were chosen; we joined various clubs; we took an active part in the selling of bonds and stamps; and our class officers were elected. They are as follows: President, Mario Fortunato; Vice President, Paul Desmond; Secretary, Jane Lawrence; Treasurer, Edith Him.

Our class won its first public honor on Drama Night when we presented the winning play, a comedy entitled "Are We Dressing?" Those participating were Gordon Russell, who won the award for the best acting of the cast for this play; Mary Dwyer, Donald Berry, Joanne Ward, Mary Shay, Guido Lauranzano, Ann Wyeth, and Raymond Norton.

Robert Diebner and Louis Mazzaglia represented the Sophomores on the football team, while other Sophomores acted as subs.

Nor was basketball neglected, for Gordon Zwicker made the first team, while Robert Rich, Graham Nelson, and Albert Churchill did their part on the second team.

Also many Sophomore girls took an active part in basketball. Jean Bartlett upheld our class as the Sophomore cheer leader.

We are all looking forward with pleasure to our Junior and Senior years, and we also hope to see the end of the war before we graduate.

The Air Service division, the largest boys' division of the Victory Corps, with an enrollment of 45, meets every Tuesday, under the able leadership of Mr. Riggs and Mr. MacInnis. There are informative pictures on aircraft, its operation, its maintenance, and its barriers, such as weather. Sometimes, to change the program, an outside speaker is procured from some branch of the service, or the finer points of navigation are explained. Also the rules and regulations of air traffic and transport are thoroughly explained.

This year's branch of the Land Service of the Victory Corps has been organized for many months. During this time the corps has covered a pre-basic course consisting of Army Life and Military Courtesy, Army Terminology and Discipline, and the Army in the Field, which includes map reading and compass reading. This course is supplemented by the academic studies of every member. On the completion of this course it is intended that the boys shall have enough information to enable them to advance more rapidly when in the service.

We have had forty members in the Sea Service this year. These boys have made a special study of problems pertaining to naval welfare, and sea service. This work has included lectures by the counselors, talks by service men, research studies, movies, group and individual projects, and group instruction. On the completion of this work, those who have pursued the course should be quite able to adjust themselves readily to service in any of the branches of the Navy.

The Clerical Aid Division of the Beverly High School Victory Corps has spent a year of great accomplishment, under the able guidance of Miss Brown and Miss Moore.

The members have done much to aid the war effort in working for the Chamber of Commerce, and have assisted the other Victory Corps divisions. This aid consisted of typewriting, filing, and other clerical work in which the girls have been instructed.

The wealth of practical knowledge they have acquired will aid them greatly in whatever field of office work they may enter.

John Gobeille, Myrtle Raymond, Malissa Thomas, John Truesdale.

This small group gathers in Room 201 every Tuesday morning to take care of the orders for war stamps and bonds that are taken in each home room. At that time, records are made, the money is counted and rolled, and the stamp order made up. In addition, some of the members take the completed order to the bank and collect the stamps and bonds.

The work of these pupils is only a part of the labor involved in our weekly sale of stamps. Much credit is due to the various home room salesmen for their faithfulness in collecting the money, distributing the stamps, and urging the purchase of stamps and bonds.

Minute Men Volunteers

Walter Dawson, Vincent Nuccio, Francis Roberts, James Comiskey, Vincent Menesale, Ralph Lewis, Joseph MacDougall, Milton Callichy, Gordon Estes, Robert Pelonzi.

Row two:

Priscilla Goodwin, Myrna Torrey, Dorothy Mateik, Iris Durland, Louise Murphy, Ruth Ann Bennett, Florence McCormack, Berenice Greenleaf, Mary Scanlan, Berniece Homan, Pauline McMahon, Gloria Goldberg, Naomi Berman, Peggy Waldie.

Row three:

Rita DiGiustino, Angelina Page, Christine Campbell, Barbara Brown, Marion Burchsted, Louise Gilbert, Florence Gavel, Annette Adler, Pauline Kirby, Miss John, sponsor, Alberta Fraser, Lucile Gove, Sally McKay, Eileen Kelleher, Constance Fraser, Ann Wyeth, Nancy Black, Eleanor Hathaway, Edith Him.

Row four:

Sally Ann Cohn, Shirley Chaloner, Helen Proulx, Anne Rollins, Norma Winther, Lorraine Andersen, Irene Thibault, Phyllis Webber, Dorothy Bowles, Mary Williams, Barbara Buxton, Petrina Santoro, Priscilla St. Onge, Phyllis Kaplan.

Minute Men who were not in the picture:

Marylou Buckley, Rose Carnevale, Eleanor Colby, Robert Crosby, Marilyn Dodge, Natalie Freeman, Warren Griffiths, Nina Pellicio, Jean Purinton, Myrtle Raymond, Madelyn Cunningham, John Fitzgerald, Kelvin Freeman, Nancy Patch, Jean Blanchard, Evelyn Foster.

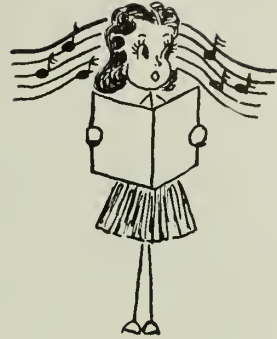

The Minute Men Volunteers for the Victory Corps of Beverly High School, assisted by some boys of the football team, sold $102,962.75 worth of bonds throughout the city of Beverly. All Minute Men working on the Sixth War Loan Drive were awarded a patriotic citation and those selling $1,000 worth of bonds were given a special citation. Berenice Greenleaf, of the class of 1946 is to be especially commended for her work. She sold over fifty bonds, amounting to more than a thousand dollars.

There were two radio broadcasts from Station WESX, to further the sale of bonds, under the direction of Mrs. Ada Smith, chairman of the Women's Division of the War Finance Committee. Victory Corps members who took part were Warren Griffiths, Helen Proulx, Barbara Haskell, Elaine Stuart, Marylou Buckley, Suzanne Bowles, Wendall Mason, Curtis Foster, and Marland Slaven.

Many pupils in an English class wrote essays for the Times for the War Loan Drive.

Clubs

Student Council

Connie Bernasconi, Sally McKay, vice president; Armand Fortunato, president; Marylou Buckley; Erma McLean, secretary.

Second row:

Daniel McPherson, Curtis Foster, Frances Boujorno, Robert Scanzani, Helen Grant, Joseph Cressey, William Lee, Lucile Gove, Mr. Jameson, faculty advisor.

Not in picture:

Robert LaPointe.

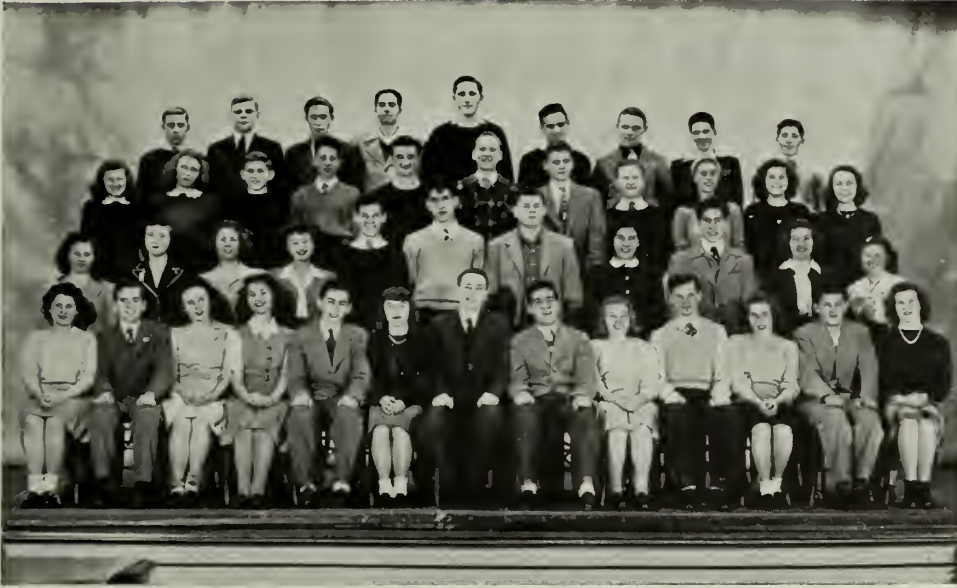

The Student Council is the smaller of two bodies representing student government at Beverly High School. Its members are elected from the individual classes by students of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes respectively. This method serves as a congenial and cooperative way for attaining student representation, since the student is given directly a voice in school activities.

The Council is also the sponsor for many of the assemblies and socials held during the school year.

Mr. Jameson is the Council's new faculty adviser. Officers of the Council are as follows: president, Armand Fortunato; vice president, Sally McKay; secretary, Erma McLean; treasurer, Helen Grant.

House of Delegates

Rita Bossie, Edward Lowell, Barbara Connolly, Yolanda Rossi, Philip Mason, Frances McDonnell, Mr. Root, adviser, Joseph Gentile, Naomi Berman, Earle Soper, Gloria Goldberg, Michael Pisani, Margery Homan.

Second row:

Claire Deschenes, Mary Scanlan, Jean Poole, Corinne Estes, Warren Allen, Richard Lombardi, Douglas Henderson, Caroline Wyeth, Adelbert Rockwell, Jessica Nason, Gloria Lang.

Third row:

Jane Ann Lawrence, Willa Murray, Paul Petronzio, Robert Frost, George Brown, John Hoikala, Russell Todd, Warren Moffett, Ruth Ann Bennett, Jean Hubbard, Constance Fraser.

Fourth row:

Robert Woodbury, Durrell Hawthorne, Whitney Robinson, Saverio Panunzio, Robert Diebner, James Teague, Paul Desmond, Frederick Proulx, Edward Bushey.

The House of Delegates, the lower house of the Student Congress, is made up of delegates from each home room who are popularly elected by the students. The officers of this organization are president, Philip Mason; vice president, Joseph Gentile; secretary, Frances McDonnell.

The purpose of this Congress is to help in keeping, developing, and improving school spirit and school policies. Through this organization each student may present his pleas, suggestions, and complaints. Every student is given the utmost consideration and help. This year the House of Delegates has striven to obtain the best policies and ideals for the students and the school which they represent.

Thelma Blanchard, Barbara Haskell, Jean Purinton, Sally Ann Cohn, Marylou Buckley, Robert Crosby, Betty Cook, Yolanda Rossi, Mary Galluzzi.

Second row:

Mrs. Corbett, Barbara Buxton, June Johnson, Gwendolyn Leonard, Alberta Fraser, Annette Adler, Beverley Baker, Priscilla Summit, Ruth Patten, Gloria Lang, Miss Brown, Mr. Kimball,

Third row:

Barbara Connolly, Sally McKay, David Kellom, Bruce Robertson, William Campbell, Norman Whitaker, Richard Patch, Elaine Stuart, Natalie Wells.

By special foresightedness of our printer, Mr. Palmer, in the matter of a sufficient supply of paper, Beverly High School students are able to receive their regular four issues of the school's literary magazine, The Aegis.

This magazine consists of material written and published by the students — for the students. It strengthens the pupils' interest in literary achievements. The four issues of 1944-1945 have been developed on the theme of the four seasons.

Early in the school year an assembly was put on by The Aegis members in order to increase subscriptions, with very satisfactory results.

This year's staff includes Marylou Buckley, editor-in-chief; Robert Crosby, assistant editor; and Mrs. Corbett, Miss Brown, and Mr. Kimball, faculty advisers.

Safety Patrol

Yolanda Rossi, William Campbell, Marylou Buckley, Mr. Root, adviser, Robert Pelonzi, Robert Wood, Barbara Buxton.

Second row, standing:

Vincent Nuccio, Dorothy Bowles, Donald Richardson, William Floyd, Douglas Henderson, Frank Gaudenzi, Phyllis Webber, Shirley Reinhold.

For the past twenty years the Safety Patrol has had the duty of controlling passing between the classes at Beverly High. In addition to their regular duties, this group is often called upon to serve as ushers at other school functions such as graduation, plays, and football games. Mr. Root is the counselor of the squad, and this year's captain is Marylou Buckley.

Audubon

Adaline Ross, Paul Stein, Charles Rogers.

The Audubon Club is open to pupils interested in nature, especially in birds. During the fall and spring the members go on nature walks, observing the different plants and birds along the way. During the winter the club meets in the school building and studies birds — their colors, habits, migration, and food, also the benefit they are to man.

Slide Rule

Alfred DeSantis, Dana Dodge, John Williams, David Lunt, Miss Hett, sponsor, Philip Mason, Irwin Winer, Edward Lowell, Francis Glazier.

Second row:

George Richards, Mario Taglieri, Robert Rackliffe, Robert Murney, Robert Benjamin, Charles Beadle, James Atwater, Mario Fortunato, Robert Brown, Everett MacLeod.

Members absent:

Albert Ambrefe, Harold Haskins, Robert Kenney, William Tingley, Robert MacNutt, Rudolph Reutter, William Smith, Charles Emerson.

The purpose of the Slide Rule Club is to teach its members the use of the slide rule which is of great value in school, office, and machine shop work.

The slide rule is an instrument well worth owning. It is indispensable in problems of multiplication, division, squares, square roots, cubes, cube roots, circumferences and areas of circles.

Under the genial direction of our instructor, Miss Hett, we have reached a high degree of accuracy in solving problems which she has prepared for us.

The club meets every Thursday morning and has twenty-six members.

Military French

Standing:

Marland Slaven, Hubert Snow, Miss Russell, sponsor, Caroline Wyeth, Eleanor Standley, Ramona Huard.

Seated:

Pauline Irving.

Miss Russell's Military French Club is a new addition to the long list of clubs already offered to the pupils of Beverly High. The purpose of this club is to familiarize all those who are interested, with French terms which may prove to be helpful at some future time. This knowledge would be particularly valuable to all who intend to enter the armed forces. Members are acquainted with modern French idioms and expressions which would enable them to travel more easily in France. Although the club is, at present, rather small, it is hoped that new students will take advantage of this opportunity which is offered to them.

Pan American Relations

First row, sitting:

Jetta Strom, Jean Poole, Blanche Dodge.

Second row:

Elsie Clark, Thelma Hardy, Claire Thibodeau.

Third row:

Madelyn Cunningham, Phyllis Gasper, Bettina Edwards, Laurice Foley.

Standing:

Miss Hatch, sponsor, Herman Whalen, Thomas Ritchie, Edward Rowe, Bruce Smith, John Fitzgerald.

Absent when picture was taken:

Herbert Nielson, Joan Phelan, Audrey Rockwell.

The Pan American Relations group, through a series of conferences every week, discusses matters of interest in the countries of Central and South America. Each country is taken separately and its history, its inhabitants, its products and transportation facilities, and its relations with the United States are studied and discussed.

One week the club was honored with the presence of the father of one of the members. Mr. Dodge showed the very interesting moving pictures he had taken on his trip to Haiti and Venezuela.

Other movies, speakers and exhibits of articles from the various countries have added novelty and pleasure to the year's program.

Stagecraft

Donald Richardson, Robert Wood, John Carr, John Thatcher, Robert Hamilton
Richard Burr.

Foreground:

Harry Munsey, Harry Minott, Leo Buckley.

On ladder:

William Reilly.

Allan Gaspar, Edward Forrant, Nicholas Boniface, Arthur Davis, Mr. Rolfe, director.

Under the direction of Mr. Roland Rolfe, boys in the Stagecraft Club design and make scenery for the plays and assemblies. They also have an opportunity to use the stage equipment. The boys of this club must give up many afternoons to be on stage at rehearsals, in order to make a success of all the school assemblies.

Manager: Jack Carr

Assistant Manager: Robert Wood

Boys' Glee Club

First row, left to right:

Kelvin Freeman, Milton Callichy, James Stacey, Saverio Panunzio, Walter Dawson, George Rogers, Vincent Menesale, Richard Patch, Joseph O'Brien, Vincent Nuccio.

Second row:

Robert McDonald, Edward Neve, Richard Hayes, Stoddard Reed, Thomas Sawyer, Miss Carabello, director, Jerry Santisi, Charles Guerrette, Arthur Churchill, John Jacques.

Third row:

Foster Allen, Paul Desmond, John Serra, George Kenney, Charles Rogers, Jean Dennis, Whitney Jackson, Frederick Proulx, Leon Mercer.

Forty-four boys meet in the assembly hall during the Activities Period on Thursdays under the inspirational leadership of Miss Carabello to express their appreciation for fine music through group singing. The fellows have mastered the humorous "Donkey Serenade" from the "Firefly" by Rudolf Friml, and also the stirring "Treat 'Em Rough, Soldier Boy" by Albert Hay Malotte. It is interesting to note that the songs are sung without the written music sheets, an uncommon feat in chorus work. The boys and Miss Carabello worked long and patiently in preparation for the second of the Beverly High School Spring Concerts, at which the Glee Club presented its finished work..

Secretary: George Rogers

Publicity Manager: Milton Callichy

Girls' Glee Club

First row, left to right:

Jean Poole, Yolanda Rossi, Anne Rollins, Alice Bower, Rita Bossie, Audrey White, Althea Scarboro, Helen Proulx, Virginia Rogers, Ann Roberts, Shirley Chaloner, Alberta Fraser.

Second Row:

Pauline Laurie, Ruth Greenwood, Shirley Doane, June Gonet, Yvonne Davison, Frances Bonjorno, Betty Cook, Miss Carabello, director, Barbara Haskell, Beverley Baker, Lillian Marcos, Ruth McEachern, Thelma Hardy, Shirley Martin, Eleanor Hopkins.

Third row:

Elizabeth Ann Brigham, Doris Hamlin, Betty Edwards, Carol Wyeth, Jean Sunderland, Jean Birmingham, Barbara Newman, Fay Morgan, Louise Gilbert, Marion Staples, Mary Modugno, Nancy Patch, Theresa Ducharme.

Back row:

Eleanor Standley, Lorraine Newman, Jessica Nason, June Woodbury, Mary Scanlan, Muriel Scott, Priscilla Hamilton, Annette St. Pierre, Angelina Mercaldi, Florence Gavel.

A very popular club among the students is the Glee Club, under the supervision of Miss Carabello. Talent trained in this group appears frequently at our assemblies. The purpose of the club is to give to these girls who appreciate good music a chance to enjoy it.

Sophomore Glee Club

Joan Hubbard, Joyce Howard, Theresa Deschene, Jean Poole, Ethel Ambrose, Lorraine Liberge, Joanne Ward, Jane Lawrence, Ann Wyeth, Constance Fraser, Norma Hall, Marion Robertson.

Second row:

Ruth Ann Bennett, Willa Murray, Frances Cowles, Dorothy Soucy, Priscilla Schaller, Frances Stone, Miss Carabello, director, Beverly Wheeler, Ruth Roundy, Shirley Drown, Pauline Foster, Jetta Strom, Myrna Torrey, Shirley Slate.

Third row:

Doris Woods, Lorraine Dube, Mary Hubbard, Alberta Cassola, Dagmar Hallbauer, Catherine Vanikiotis, Mina Parks, Harriette Trask, Joann Gibbs, Eugenia Barron, Lillian Campbell, Joyce Hopkins, Edith Him.

This year the Sophomores have their own Glee Club because of the large number of girls who have come out to sing, "Wooden Shoes" from "Sweethearts" by Herbert, "España" from "Rhapsodie" by Chabrier, and "Anitra's Dance" from "Peer Gynt Suite" by Grieg, were sung by this group at the spring concert. The club has its own officers who take an active part in its business affairs.

Mixed Chorus

Milton Callichy, Vincent Nuccio, Helen Proulx, Anne Rollins, Vincent Menesale, Alberta Fraser, Walter Dawson, Mary Modugno, John Santisi, Alice Bower, George Rogers, Rita Bossie, Jean Poole, Richard Burr, Audrey Wright, Althea Scarboro, Shirley Martin, Lillian Marcos, Kelvin Freeman, Richard Patch, Joseph O'Brien, Virginia Rogers.

Second row:

Priscilla Hamilton, Muriel Scott, Angelina Mercaldi, Elizabeth Brigham, Pauline Laurie, Theresa Ducharme, Ruth Greenwood, Yolanda Rossi, Frances Bonjorno, Annette St.-Pierre, Louise Gilbert, Doris Hamlin, Beverley Baker, Miss Carabello, director, Betty Cook, Barbara Haskell, Ann Roberts, Barbara MacDougall, Florence Gavel, Shirley Chaloner, Marion Staples, Thomas Sawyer, Leon Mercer, John Jacques, Nancy Patch, Elinor Hopkins, Eleanor Standley, Lorraine Newman.

Third row:

Marion Robertson, Norma Hall, Ethel Ambrose, Jetta Strom, Robert MacDonald, June Gouet, Jessica Nason, Carol Wyeth, Thelma Hardy, Charles Guerrette, Edward Neve, Ruth McEachern, Jean Birmingham, Barbara Newman, Fay Morgan, Jean Sunderland, Shirley Doane, Betty Edwards, Mary Scanlan, June Woodbury, John White, Doris Woods, Lorraine Dube, Theresa Deschenes, Joanne Ward, Edith Him.

Fourth row:

Frances Stone, Priscilla Schaller, Dorothy Soucy, Joyce Howard, Frances Cowles, Shirley Drown, Mina Parks, Ruth Roundy, Pauline Foster, Ruth Bennett, Beverley White, George Kenney, Joann Gibbs, Dagmar Hallbauer, Eugenia Barron, Joan Hubbard, Catherine Vanikiotis, Harriet Trask, Mary Hubbard, Jane Lawrence, Lillian Campbell, Ann Wyeth, Constance Fraser, Lorraine Liberge, Alberta Cassola, Shirley Slate, Myrna Torrey, Joyce Hopkins.

Fifth row:

William Hathaway, Foster Allan, Robert Rowe, Allan Johnson, Arthur Churchill, Durell Hawthorne, Stoddard Reed, Richard Hayes, Charles Rogers, Guido Lauranzano, John Serra, Whitney Robinson, Norman Wilkes, Paul Desmond, Whitney Jackson, Jean Denis, Fred Proulx, Thomas Haibon.

The Mixed Chorus which meets every Tuesday morning is under the capable direction of Miss Angelica Carabello. It is composed of enthusiastic boys and girls who are interested in music and choral singing and has taken part in many assemblies and in the annual Spring Concert.

Senior Memoirs

Orchestra

First row:

Ellis Purinton, Robert Chalmers, Helen Proulx, Francis Story, Edward Grant, George Macdonald, Mary Scanlan, Arlene Russell.

Second row:

Robert Currier, Herbert Slotnick, Mary Shea, Joan Harrington, Nancy Tozer, Lucile Gove, Norma Hall, Leone Panunzio.

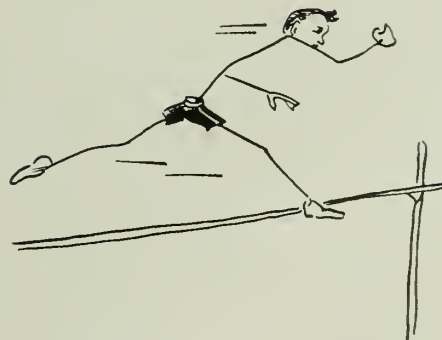

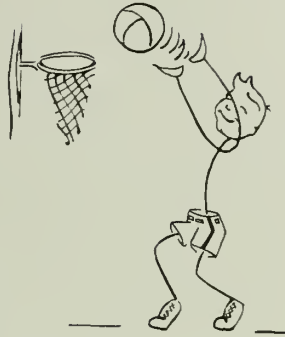

Back row:

Raymond Norton, Robert Murch, Orville Burr, Stanley Pofcher, Warren Allen, Warren Moffett.

Each Thursday the Orchestra rehearses under the direction of Mr. Phillips. During this period, the pupils learn marches, waltzes, and overtures. These pieces are played throughout the year at assemblies and on many other occasions. The student leader is Edward Grant.

Athletics

Cross Country

First row, left to right:

Robert Gillis, Frank Ferriero, Edmond Belanger, George Kenney, Gregory Congley, William McDonald, John Benjamin, Carl Aylwood.

Second row, Center:

Elliott Gelin, manager, Peter Davekos, John Gobielle, Robert McPherson, Frank Tarr, John Hoikala, Richard Saunders, John Williams, William Dupee, Mr. Rudkin, coach.

Third row:

Donald Taylor, Charles Reynolds, Seraphino Ferriero, Warren Andrews, William Campbell, David Lunt, Robert Webber, Joseph Cressy, Kent Rudkin, Earle Craig.

Coach "Doe" Rudkin's 1944 Cross Country Squad finished a most successful season with three wins and one defeat. A newcomer to the squad, Jake Andrews and his running mates, Charlie Reynolds, Frank Tarr, Johnny Gobeille, George MacDonald and John Benjamin, were responsible for the three victories. Andrews, a sophomore, finished first Beverly man in three of the four meets and on this record much is expected of him in the next two years. The outstanding event of the season occurred when Beverly trounced a comparatively weak Central Catholic Team with a perfect score of fifteen to sixty-two. Our congratulations to Coach Rudkin, who is consistently bringing winning track and cross country teams to Beverly.

Cheer Leaders

Alma LeBrun, Corinne Estes, Leontine Marks, Eleanor Ricci, Louise Fielding, Jean Bartlett, Shirley Reinhold, Sylvia Chouinard, Simone Laverdiere, Miss Tersolo, sponsor.

In front:

Lorraine Andersen.

The cheer leaders did a fine job during the football season and attended every game in spite of the weather and traveling conditions. Besides the regular squad above, special recognition for faithful work should be given Ramona Huard who served as substitute.

Senior Memoirs

Football

Frank Estey, Donald Richardson, John Hilton, Domenic Petrosino, John Pietrini, John Waldie, Robert Pelonzi, captain, John Dooling, Ralph Lewis, Frank Marchilli, Vincent Menesale, Robert Hoar, Ernest Tedford.

Second row:

Third row:

Louis DiCarlo, Oscar Gustafson, John Carr, Dwight Hanson, Richard Tracey, Albert Romani, Guy Rossi, John McCleary, George Rogers, Richard Merritt, Carl Whitaker, Donald Cyr, Leon Mercer.

Under the able leadership of Coach Walsh, the 1944 football team completed a fine season, the record showing four wins, four losses, and one tie. Backfield standouts for the year were Bob Robinson, ace passer, kicker, and signal caller; Jack Dooling, fleet-footed halfback; Ralph Lewis and Frank Marchilli who played excellent defensive ball throughout the season. All-stars Joe MacDougall, Dom Petrosino, and Bob Pelonzi were the bulwark of the line. The highlight of the season came on Thanksgiving Day, when, although defeated by one touchdown, Beverly proved a serious threat to the undefeated Salem eleven. The accurate passing of Robinsor and the brilliant catching of MacDougall and Diebner were chiefly responsible for the two scores. The class of '45 wishes Coach Walsh the best of success in his future years of coaching.

Mr. Rudkin, coach, John Healy, Curtis Foster, Robert Robinson, Gordon Zwicker, Albert Churchill, Graham Nelson, Robert Rich, Edward Flook, manager, John Sanborn, assistant manager.

The 1944-1945 basketball team got off to a slow start, but as the latter half of the schedule came around, the team began to find itself and definite progress was shown. The starting line-up was made up of Barry and Dooling, Seniors, and Healy, LaPointe, MacDougall, Foster, and Buckley, Juniors. With this group of Juniors returning, next year's prospects look bright. Eugene LaMontagne, regular captain-elect, was taken into the Army before the season opened.

Epilogue

Together we've walked this path of education,
Striving on to reach a higher goal.
Fitting our lives to serve our generation,
Hoping soon a better world to mould.

And from these years fond memories we gather.
Salute the past—the future now in mind.
Enter we a world of war together,
Seeking a lasting peace God help us find!
